NOTE: Players must have an established RCGA handicap (handicap in our pro shop computer is an RCGA handicap). Match play has set dates by which matches will need to be completed. If you are unable to make a match and the other player is able to do so, you will default to that player. If neither player is able to play the match, it will be decided by a coin toss in order to ensure match play is completed. Players in the first round who lose, will move into the 'B' side and continue to play match play.
